

Placebo - Second Sight

Tom: C

C Em

Walk away to save your face you never were a genius
Walk away to save your face you let it come between us
Walk away to save your face you never were a genius
Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were
Walk away to save your face you never were an actor

Walk away to save your face here comes the morning after
Walk away to save your face you never were an actor
Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were Yes it's just the second night but I would break backsides for you
Yes I know you're the jealous type cause I'm cursed with second sight so
Third verse same as the first Walk away, you never were
