

Placebo - Second Sight

Tom: C

C Em

Walk away to save your face you never were a genius Walk away to save your face you let it come between us Walk away to save your face you never were a genius Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were Walk away to save your face you never were an actor

Walk away to save your face here comes the morning after Walk away to save your face you never were an actor Walk away to save your face you never were, you never were Yes it's just the second night but I would break backsides for you Yes I know you're the jealous type cause I'm cursed with second sight so Third verse same as the first

Walk away, you never were

Acordes

