Plain White T's - Body Parts

Tom: C Am G С Intro: Am G C F F And every night, with their eyes closed tight G C Dm Am I'm lost in dreams that I'll awake and see My heart was talking to my head Am G C С D Said, "I've loved once; I'll never love again" You lying next to me F And my head, at this, replied R If there's one thing I've learned C D "I'll miss her too; she was easy on the eyes" F It's how easy the tables turn G С F B Am And now all they do is look around for you Am G C F And if there's one thing I know Am G C F And every night, with their eyes closed tight F It's the fine art of letting go G Am С They are lost in dreams that they'll awake and see Dm My heart was talking to my head Am G С You lying next to me С D Said, "I've loved once; I'll never love again" Dm Е My feet could feel it in their soles С G Am And now all they do is look around for you Am G C F С We have gone too far And every night, with their eyes closed tight Am G C F I'm lost in dreams that I'll awake and see D And we'll never make it home F And these hands, they felt the same Am G C С D You lying next to me They held her once, but they let her slip away BEC BEC C F Am G And now all they do is look around for you

Acordes

