

Plumtree - Your Mouth Shoots Off

Tom: C

If you wanted me to speak my mind
 I'd speak my mind to you
 And I'd try to see it through
 You've felt that fear
 For the thousandth time and you're
 Willing to shrug it off
 Either way you're much too soft
 And I've been scared for a long time too
 But I'm willing to fight with you
 And it would be a bit to do

If you wanted me to speak my mind
 I'd speak my mind for you
 And I'd try to see it through
 If you wanted me to speak my mind
 I'd speak my mind for you
 And I'd try to see it through

I felt my hands
 Tie them into this

And then look me straight in the eyes
 And then still took me by surprise
 I tried to be
 Complimentary but right now
 I'm just appalled
 Cuz that can't hurt me most of all
 (Can't hurt me most of all)
 And it's all my fault
 Telling myself that Somebody's
 Waiting for me
 I know
 I know
 Somebody
 If you ever decide to leave
 If you wanted me to speak my mind
 I'd speak my mind to you
 And I'd try to see it through

I would
 Speak my mind to you
 And I'd try to see it through
