The Pogues - The Auld Triangle

Tom: G

G A hungry feeling Bm Came o'er me stealing And the mice were squeeling  $\frac{A}{C}$ In my prison cell Bm G And that auld triangle went jingle-jangle C G D GAll along the banks of the Royal Canal G Oh! To start the morning Bm The warden bawling C G "Get up out of bed, you! And Clean out your cell!" And that auld triangle went jingle-jangle C G D G All along the banks of the Royal Canal G Oh! the screw was peeping Bm And the loike was sleeping C G As he lay weeping A C For his girl Sal Bm And that auld triangle went jingle-jangle C G D G All along the banks of the Royal Canal

Acordes

G On a fine Spring evening Bm The loike lay dreaming C And the sea-gulls were wheeling A C High above the wall G Bm And that auld triangle went jingle-jangle C G D G All along the banks of the Royal Canal G Oh! the wind was sighing Bm And the day was dying C G As the loike lay crying A C In his prison cell Bm G And that auld triangle went jingle BLOODY-jangle C G D G All along the banks of the Royal Canal G In the women's prison Bm There are seventy women C G And I wish it was with them A C That I did dwell G Bm And that auld triangle CAN GO jingle-jangle C G D GAll along the banks of the Royal Canal