All your life they thought that you were a monster
 But they didn't see the way you felt inside
 And everybody in the world just calls you "Bowser"
 And they never guess the secret that you hid

You pretend to be the King of the Koopa
 But in your heart you know you're really a Queen
 If you could only make a change, that would be super
 And finally you'd know that you were truly seen

Bowsette, you needn't be an angry turtle!
 Bowsette, you can be who you want to be
 Bowsette, you can reveal your inner beauty
 So let the Super Crown help you to just be free

They all know that Peach is your great obsession
 But the reason why, they could never guess
 And everyday you linger deep in your depression
 For the truth is this: you want to wear her dress

Always busy giving orders to your minions
 Always focused on defeating Mario

But you would gladly trade away your whole dominion
 To fulfill the wish that none may ever know

Bowsette, you needn't be an angry turtle!
 Bowsette, you can be who you want to be
 Bowsette, you can reveal your inner beauty
 So let the Super Crown help you to just be free

You can make the change today
 Don't let it slip away
 When you show them who you are, you're finally free!
 Heed the wisdom of your soul
 Make honesty your goal
 No more need to hide; be who you're meant to be!
