

Post Malone - Stay

Tom: F

It's true that all that you know is all that you are
 You said that it's all that you want and more
 Fuck off and pour another drink
 And tell me what you think
 You know that I'm too drunk to talk right now
 You put your cigarette out on my face
 So beautiful, please woman
 Don't break your back for me
 I'll put you out of your misery
 Tell me that it's all okay (tell me that it's all okay)
 I've been waitin' on this all damn day (waitin' on this all damn day)
 Call me in the mornin', tell me how last night went I'm here, but don't count on me to Stay a little longer if you convince me
 You tell me all the things that you have against me
 Every time we make up, the truth is faded
 Everybody's blind when the view's amazin'
 Damn, who are we right now?

Can we have a little conversation?
 We carry on, what is our motivation?
 We're never wrong, how the hell we gonna make it?
 Maybe we're used to this
 Tell me, what are we to do
 It's like we only play to lose
 Chasin' pain with an excuse
 I love that shit and so do you
 But don't break your back for me
 I'll put you out of your misery
 Tell me that it's all okay (tell me that it's all okay)
 I've been waitin' on this all damn day (waitin' on this all damn day)
 Call me in the mornin', tell me how last night went
 I'm here, but don't count on me to stay
 Tell me that it's all okay (tell me that it's all okay)
 I've been waitin' on this all damn day (waitin' on this all damn day)
 Call me in the mornin', tell me how last night went
 I'm here, but don't count on me to stay
