Verse 1:

      Db-5                C           C
      "All hands on deck   we've run afloat"
      Cm7              Bb Bb
      I heard the captain cry
      Ab        Ab  Cm  Fm Fm7          Cm
      Explore the ship      replace the cook
      Db-5                E
      Let no one leave alive

      B                Gb
      Across the straits   around the horn
      B          B7M   B7
      How far can sailors fly
      E                Em
A twisted path   our tortured course
      B              F#sus4  Gb
      And no one left alive
Verse 2:

      We sailed for parts unknown to man
      Where ships come home to die

No lofty peak    nor fortress bold
Could match our captain's eye

Upon the seventh seasick day
We made our port of call
The sand so white and sea so blue
No mortal place at all

Break:

      strings/piano (arranged for guitar):

       B                     Ddim
       v     v     v     v     v     v     v     v

       Gb              Adim            Gbdim
       v     v     v     v     v     v     v     v

Verse 3:

      We fired the gun and burned the mast
      And rode from ship to shore
      The captain cried, we sailors wept
      Our tears were tears of joy

      Now many moons and many Junes
      Have passed since we made land
      And the salty dog, the seaman's log
      Your witness in my own hand

[repeat string/piano break; end on Db-5 w/seagulls]
