

Procol Harum - Dead Mans Dream

Tom: Db

(intro) Dm E7 Cm Ebm D D7

Bbm F Fm Eb
 As I lay down dying a floor for my bed
 Bbm F Fm Eb Cm7
 And a bundle of newspaper under my head
 Ebm7 B Ab7 Cm
 I dreamed a dream as strange as could be
 Cdim Bbm C Fm (bass) F E F G
 Concerning myself and somebody like me

(Ab Eb Ab Gm Eb Bb Dbdim)

Bbm F Fm Eb
 We were in some city the stranger and me
 Bbm F Fm Eb Cm7 Ebm
 The houses were open and the streets empty
 B A Ab Cm
 The windows were bare and the pavements dirty
 Gb Bbm C7 Fm (bass) F E F G
 I asked where I was; my companion ignored me

(Ab F Bbm)

Bbm Gbm7
 We entered a graveyard and searched for a tombstone
 E Gbm
 The graves were disturbed and the coffins wide open

E Bm
 And the corpses were rotten yet each one was living
 Dbm Bm A G Gb
 Their eyes were alive with maggots crawling

Bbm Gbm7
 I cried out in fear but my voice had left me
 E Gbm
 My legs were deformed yet I moved quite freely
 E (bass) E Gb Ab A B Db Bm E
 My head was on fire yet my hands were icy

(bass) E Gb G A E Gb G A

Dbm Bm
 And everywhere light yet darkness engulfed me

(A G Gb)

(solo on) Dm E Cm D

Bbm F Fm Eb
 I managed to scream and woke from my slumber
 Bbm F Fm Eb Cm7 Ebm7
 I thought of my dream and lay there and wondered
 B Ab Cm
 Where had I been? What could it mean?
 Gbdim Bbm
 It was dark in the deathroom
