Tom: Db
  (intro)
               Eb Ab Ab Eb (Eb )
(verse 1)
Eb Bb
 The Devil came from Kansas
       Bb
Where he went to I can't say
     Ab
Though I teach I'm not a preacher
    Ab
And I aim to stay that way
      Bb
There's a monkey riding on my back
     Bb
Been there for some time
   Ab
He says he knows me very well
    Fm
But he's no friend of mine
(chorus)
I am not a humble pilgrim
          Ab
                  Ab7
There's no need to scrape and squeeze
         Gb Ab
                           Bb
And don't beg for silver paper
        F
                Ab
When I'm trying to sell you cheese
( Bb Eb Ab Eb )
```

```
The Devil came from Kansas
Where he went to I can't say
If you really are my brother
Then you better start to pray
For the sins of those departed
And the ones about to go
There's a dark cloud just above us
Don't scowl because I know
(repeat chorus)
(guitar solo) Bb Eb Bb Eb (3x)
               Ab Eb Bb
(drum fill)
(verse 3)
Though I never came from Kansas
Don't forget to thank the cook
Which reminds me of my duty
I was lost though now I look
For the turning and the signpost
And the road which takes you down
To that pool inside the forest
In whose waters I shall drown
(repeat chorus)
(coda)
(guitar solo)
