(verse 1)
 G Bm Em Am D
 Still scowling black Good Captain Clack
 G Bm Em Am (verses) D (organ solo) D7
 Must eat his humble pie
 G Bm G7 C Cm (to coda on repeat)
 His bed is made the colors fade
 G Em Am (verses) D7 (organ solo) D
 His eyes once wet are dry

(verse 2)
 The naked muse who sits and chews
 Tobacco off a tree
 Removes his shoes, gives way to booze
 G Em Am D G (N.C.)
 And searches endlessly

(bridge)
 Eb Bb
 See the naked jumberlack
 Ab Eb
 Sip his aphrodisiac
 F7 Bb
 Cotton picking farmers three
 Eb Bb
 Though I lost my weathervane
 Ab Eb
 And of sense I have one grain
 F7 Bb (N.C.)
 I'm content sipping lemon tea

(instrumental break)
 (organ solo over Verse 1 chords, altered as indicated)

(repeat verse 1)

(coda)
 G Em Am D Gm
 His eyes once wet are
