

PUP - Back Against The Wall

```
Might as well just burn it all
                            tom:
                Bm (forma dos acordes no tom de Cm )
                                                                 [Ponte]
                            Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb
Intro: Cm Eb Ab Fm
                                                                Eb
        Cm Eb Ab Fm
                                                                Oo hoo
                                                                                  Ab
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                Oo hoo hoo oooo
  Now you find out
                                                                Oo hoo
                                 Ab
                                       Fm
                                                                                  Ab
                                                                                       Fm
  Yeah, your back's against the wall
                                                                Oo hoo hoo oooo
  If I'm a burnout
                                                                 [Pré-Refrão]
  Might as well just burn it all
                                                                I don't listen much these days
[Ponte]
                                                                I don't listen anyways, yeah they ask me
Oo hoo
                                                                why?
                 Ab
Oo hoo hoo oooo
                                                                 [Refrão]
Oo hoo
                                                                   Now you find out
                 Ab
Oo hoo hoo oooo
                                                                   Yeah, your back's against the wall
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                   If I'm a burnout
                                                                   Might as well just burn it all
I don't listen much no more
                                                                 [Segunda Parte]
I don't listen anymore, yeah they ask me why?
                                                                   Now in hindsight
[Refrão]
                                                                   you, know we couldn't ask for more
  Now you find out
                                                                   In the limelight
                                 Ah
                                        Fm
                                                                                            Ah
  Yeah, your back's against the wall
                                                                   I feel better than ever before
  If I'm a burnout
                                                                 [Final] Cm
                              Ab
                                     \mathsf{Fm}
```

Acordes

