In the year of '39 assembled here the volunteers
 In the days when lands were few

Here the ship sailed out into the Blue and sunny morn, sweetest sight ever seen.

And the night followed day, and the storytellers say
 That the score brave souls inside
 For many a lonely day sailed across the milky seas
 Never looked back, never feared, never cried.

Don't you hear my call, though you're many years away,
 Don't you hear me calling you
 Write your letters in the sand for the day I take your hand
 In the land that our grandchildren knew.

In the year of '39 came a ship in from the blue
 The volunteers came home that day
 And they bring good news of a world so newly born
 Though their hearts so heavily weigh
 For the earth is old and grey, little darling we'll away
 But my love this cannot be
 For so many years have gone though I'm older but a year
 Your mother's eyes, from your eyes cry to me.
 Don't you hear my call though you're many years away
 Don't you hear me calling you
 Write your letters in the sand cannot heal me like your hand
 In the land that our grandchildren knew.
 Don't you hear my call though you're many years away
 Don't you hear me calling you
 All your letters in the sand cannot heal me like your hand
 For my life, still ahead, pity me.
