Queen - Small

Tom: C

   D                                  G
I like to sit here in the sunshine

Em                                  C         G
trees in the fields are green sublime

       C            G
suspended in time

       Am               C            G
and dawn it make you feel small

D                                  G
I like to sit here by the fire's light
Em                                        C              G
the trees in the fields lie bed to the night

      C              G
the stars burn bright

       Am               C            G
and dawn it make you feel small

C       Am                F                  C
Everyone needs a place they can hide

C       Am             F               C
hide away find space to be alone

C       Am                F                  C
everyone needs a place they can hide

C        Am               F                  C
every one needs to find peace sublime

D                                  G
I like to sit here in the autumn time

Em                                              C G
the trees in the fields they russle in the wind

C                                  G
the church bells gently chime

C                        G
gentle on your mind

C                   G             Am                C
G
suspended in time and dawn it make you feel small

C       Am                F                   C
Everyone needs a place they can hide

C       Am                F                  C
everyone needs to find peace sublime

(   SOLO  )

C Am F                        C
ohhhhhhh... peace of mind

C       Am                F                  C
Everyone needs a place they can hide

C       Am             F               C
hide away find space to be alone

C       Am                F                  C
Everyone needs a place they can hide

C       Am             F               C
hide away find space to be alone

C       Am                F                  C
Everyone needs a place they can hide
C       Am             F               C
hide away find space to be alone

C       Am                F                  C
Everyone needs a place they can hide

C       Am             F               C
hide away find space to be alone

C              Am                          F
ohhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh... peace of mind
