Lyrics:

Lie, lie to my face
tell me it ain't no thing that's what i wanna hear

Take, your lie to the grave that's what an old friend told me look what it did for him whooha, whohoo...

The truth hurts so bad
wouldn't you say
so why tell it
if ignorance is bliss, then I'm in heaven now

Run, you'll never escape you see you go nowhere so new you appear

Broke, laid to waste will turn to sweet no things that kiss you goodbye

whooha, whohoo...

The truth hurts so bad
wouldn't you say
so why tell it
if ignorance is bliss, then I'm in
heaven now

I keep doin' it over and over again the never ending places i never been no one's catching on or callin my bluff
the devil made, only we never met

What'd you do?
say it with a smile boy
making us all forget

What'd you do?
making us all forget
