

Queens Of The Stone Age - Keep Your Eyes Peeled

Tom: Bb
Intro:

So ominously blue
Daydream until all the blue is gone

Verse #1:

Don't look, just keep your eyes peeled
Thoughtless, trapped in my minefield
Shotgun, never behind the wheel, anymore
Danger, monsters of smoke and mirror
Slowly, can one so lost be found?

Chorus:

And I know, you will never believe
I play as though I'm alright
If life is but a dream, then
Wake me up

Chorus:

And I know, you will never believe
I play as though I'm alright
If life is but a dream, then
Wake me up

[----- wah -----]

Interlude #2:

Underwater is another life
Disregarding every myth we write
Rag doll churning
Eagerly alive

[----- wah -----]

[This part it's so "messy", imagine 3 guitars doing different licks at same time. Sorry, had to skip.]

Bridge #1:

Verse #3:

Interlude:

Fallen leaves realize they, are no friend of autumn
The view from hell is blue sky

Big smile, really a show of teeth
Without a care in a world of fear
Lonely, you don't know how I feel
Praise God, nothing is as it seems
