Bangers 'N' Mash - Live from various bootlegs/recordings. Dont be too hard on me, its not the clearest quality in any of the versions ive gotten a hold of. but its just a great song i wanted to play and saw no tabs for it.

Tuning: D A D G B e (for Johnny)
Intro: Riff until the verse. just use random mutes.

Verseirst Chorus
Just naturally mute these notes when you stroke up and down. i dont wanna be confusing, just improvise the mutes.

"She bit me, bit me..."

During the choruses, i think Ed starts strumming a D bar chord.

e 5
B 5

And in parts of the verse, Ed slightly bends these back and forth.

In the 2nd and 3rd chorus, Johnny plays a little solo

My favorite part of the song. After the silence, Johnny rips!

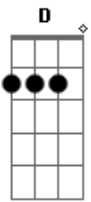

Now this was my first guess at how it the above riff was played, and still sounds cool, it has more umph, but its 1/2 step lower

And there's most of the song. i cant figure out the outro, there's too much commotion in the band, but im sure there will be better versions once the actual album out. Any corrections/ideas please email so we can get this crazy song figured out!
