Intro: C F7M G

I was a lonely man with an empty hand
 And I wanted it filled with treasure
 So I left my land and scrapped my plan
 For a love that has no measure
 And I'd hear them say go this
 Or that way
 Followed maps that men had sold me
 I did some time with the finest minds
 But not one of them could have told me
 I was looking for you
 Now I'm standing on the
 Doorstep of truth

Sat with all the schools
 Followed all the rules
 I said every affirmation
 I sang all the chants
 And drank all the plants
 In the hopes of sweet salvation
 But I won't be safe sitting in a cave
 No way to make it on my own
 There's a light so bright
 And full of might
 That it can't be held alone
 I'm gonna hold it with you
 Now I'm standing at the

Doorstep of truth
 More of this
 More of this
 Bless my life with more of this
 More of this
 More of this
 Bless my life with more of this
 More of this
 More of this
 Bless my life with more of this
 More of this
 More of this
 Bless my life with more of this
 And you
 Standing at the doorstep of truth
 Well I hope and prayed
 Before my dying day
 To let go of what's no use
 So let my hairs turn gray and fall away
 And with them the follies of youth
 Now I'm here with yo__u
 Standing at the doorstep of truth
 I am here with yo__u
 Standing at the doorstep of truth
 I am here with yo__u
 I am here with you
