Intro: Riff 1:
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn (yes ya gonna)
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       It goes a one, two, three
                                                                       Segunda Parte:
                                                                       Another funky radical bombtrack
Started as a sketch in my notebook
Riff 2:
                                                                       And now dope hooks make punks take another look
                                                                       My thoughts ya hear and ya begin to fear
                                                                       That ya card will get pulled if ya interfere
Hey yo, it's just another bombtrack
                                                                       With the thoughts from a militant mind
Hey yo, it's just another bombtrack, yeah
                                                                       Hardline, hardline after hardline
It goes a one, two, three
                                                                       Landlords and power whores
                                                                       On my people they took turns
Primeira Parte:
                                                                       Dispute the suits I ignite
                                                                       And then watch 'em burn
                                                                       Segundo Refrão:
Hey yo, it's just another bombtrack
And suckas be thinkin' that they can fade this
But I'm gonna drop it at a higher level
'Cause I'm inclined to stoop down
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Hand out some beat-downs
Cold runna train on punk ho's that
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn (yes ya gonna)
Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Think they run the game
But I learned to burn that bridge and delete
Those who compete...at a level that's obsolete
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Instead I warm my hands
                                                                           P.M . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
Upon the flames of the flag
As I recall our downfall
And the business that burned us all
                                                                       Ponte:
See through the news
                                                                       Solo:
And the views that twist reality
Enough I call the bluff
Fuck Manifest destiny
Landlords and power whores
On my people they took turns
Dispute the suits I ignite
And then watch 'em burn
With the thoughts from a militant mind
                                                                       Terceiro Refrão:
Hardline, hardline after hardline
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Landlords and power whores
On my people they took turns
Dispute the suits I ignite
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
And then watch 'em burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
                                                                       Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
Burn, burn, yes ya gonna burn
