

Rage Against The Machine - Born Without A Face

Tom: C Arch finger up on string again.

TAB BY SCOTT STANDFEST

Hey, This is how i play the song live with my band and when we play it sounds just like the album. I tabbed it myself. One reason is cuz im good at it and if you play this song i tabbed, thats a simple song and THIS IS TABBED CORRECTLY! The solo Kicks ass so have fun with that. Have fun with the song!

Still w/ wah but faster. Wah OFF!

GUITAR SOLO! Okay, this solo kicks ass! You need a whammy pedal and set it to harmonize a 7th up when it is forward and a 5th up when back. And finally, a vibrato bar(WHAMMY BAR)

WAMMY BAR, HOLD DOWN AND LET UP

TREMELO PICKING! Do this for the verses.

On each note throw whammy pedal forward on each note. Whammy bar

With Wah rock it forward and jolt back when picking the next notes.

On string mutes, slide your left hand down the fret board while still muting and picking.

Same thing but faster. WAH OFF!

More Tremelo Picking here for the 2nd verse.
