

Rage Against The Machine - Settle For Nothing

Tom: C

Detune E string to D. (the solo doesn't use the d string.)

staccato (short notes)
bend

this sounds cool! transcribe, but 12th fret 5th fret
the tape at (just above the harmonics)

this was the toughest part to I used my recorder switch to play 1/2 speed.

slower action now.....

-Lyrics-

A jail cell is freedom from the pain in my home Hatred passed on, passed on and passed on A world of violent rage
But it's one that I can recognize Having never seen the colour of my father's eyes
Yes, I dwell in hell but it's a hell that I can grip

I tried to grip my family
But I slipped
To escape from the pain and an existence mundane
I gotta 9, a sign, a set and now I got a name

rake
Read my writing on the wall
No one's here to catch me when I fall
But death in on my side Suicide

rake
A jail cell is freedom from the pain in my home Hatred passed on, passed on, passed on
A world of violent rage
But it's one I can recognize
Having never seen the colour of my father's eyes
Yes, I dwell in hell but it's a hell that I can grip
But I slipped
To escape from the pain and an existence mundane
I gotta 9, a sign, a set and now I got a name

Read my writing on the wall
No one's here to catch me when I fall
Caught between my culture and the system Genocide

if we don't take

Read my writing on the wall
No one's here to catch me when I fall
If ignorance is bliss
Then knock the smile off my face

If we don't take action now
We settle for nothing later We'll settle for nothing now
And we'll settle for nothing later
