

Rainbow Kitten Surprise - Its Called: Freefall

Tom: G

Called to the D Devil and the Devil did come

I said to the devil, "Devil do you like drums?"

G Do you like cigarettes, dominoes, rum?"

He said only "sundown, Sundays, Christmas"

D Some day's end when I need a few friends

Now and again I could never hope to keep them

G Thought to give friends what I thought that they wanted

Never had they needed a good friend as I've been

D Don't get me venting on friends who resent you 'cause all you've ever done is been a noose to hang on to

G They thought was a necklace and reckless they fell into hell where you both hang with nothing to do but

D Scratch, kick, let gravity win like

Fuck this, let gravity win like

G You could leave it all behind, even the Devil need time alone sometimes

D You could let it all go, you could let it all go

G It's Called: Freefall

It's Called: Freefall

G Called to the Devil and the Devil said quit

E Can't be bothered better handle your shit

Bm Keep about your wits man, keep about your wits

D Know yourself and who you came in with

G Can I sit down I've been hustling all day Em

I can't even count how many souls I've made

Bm Off the same deal you on

Remember: The D Devil ain't a friend to no one

G But FUN, true

Em You could let it all go, you could let it all go

Bm It's Called: Freefall

D It's Called: Freefall

G Called to the Devil and the Devil said "Hey! Why you been calling this late?"

Bm D It's like 2 A.M. and the bars all close at 10 in hell, that's a rule I made"

E Anyway, you say you're too busy saving everybody else to save yourself

D And you don't want no help, oh well

G That's the story to tell

Em You could let it all go, you could let it all go

Bm It's Called: Freefall

D It's Called: Freefall

Em You could let it all go, you could let it all go

Bm D Cause ain't shit free but falling out

Bm And that shit's easy let me show you how, it's like

(G E Bm D G)
 (Em Bm D G Em)

Bm D Ain't shit free but falling out

Em Bm And that shit's easy let me show you how, it's like...
