

Rainbow - Rainbow Eyes

She lay golden in the sun
                                                      C D G
                        tom:
                                                      No broken harmonies
                                                      But I've lost my way
         Em
                  G
                                     Am
                                                      She had rainbow eyes
She's been gone since yesterday
C D
      Em
Oh i didn't care
                                                      (GD)
Em G D
Never cared for yesterdays
                                                       Am
                                                      Rainbow eyes
Fancies in the air
                                                      (Em G C)
No sighs or mysteries
                                                      Am D
 Em A D
                                                      Rainbow eyes
She lay golden in the sun C D G
                                                                    D
                                                      Summer nights are colder now
No broken harmonies
                                                      C D Em
     С
                                                      They've taken down the fair
                                                      Em G D
But I've lost my way
                                                      All the lights have died somehow
She had rainbow eyes
                                                          D Em
                                                      Or were they ever there

              D
                                                      She had rainbow eyes
Love should be a simple blend
     D Em
                                                      (GD)
A whispering on the shore
Em G D
No clever words you can't defend
                                                      Oooh, ooh
        D
They lead to never more
                                                      [Final] Em G C Am D
No sighs or mysteries
