

Ramones - Come Back, Baby

Tom: A

E

Well life's a drag without you

D

I found out a little bit too late, oh yes I did now

I want you and all of your time

I found out a little bit too late, oh yes I did now

Come back baby, come back
 Come back baby, come back
 Come back baby, come back

Come back into my arms

Come back baby, come back...

Well I want you in my arms
 I found out a little bit too late, oh yes I did now
 Yeah, I want you and all of your time
 I found out a little bit too late, oh yes I did now

Come back baby, come back... (2x)

I want you to kiss goodnight, you gotta come back
 I want you to hold me tight, come back, yeah
 You gotta come back

Come back baby, come back... (2x)

Come back, baby, come back
 You gotta come back

Come back baby...
