

Rancid - California Sun

Tom: F

California sun has sunk
 Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight
 I was high on junk
 And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right
 Will every crimmin' hood make a bargain with the world
 Seats are successive when you're shot to the curb
 I spend my day in blindness, at night I get my vision
 Dodgy, cause there are no one indecision
 Cause it's wild
 it's
 Wild wild wild wild
 California sun has sunk
 Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight
 I was high on junk
 And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right
 I get destructive outside obedience
 I am no longer respected in this new transition
 I put into effect, my long time standard

Disastrous living, disastrous living!

Cause it's wild
 it's When

Wild wild wild wild

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right

Cause it's wild
 it's When

Wild wild wild wild

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right

California sun has sunk

Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight

I was high on junk

And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right

FEEL ALL RIGHT!!!
