Rancid - California Sun

Tom: F	Disastrous living, disastrous living!
California sun has sunk	Cause it's wild	When
Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight	it's
I was high on junk	Wild wild wild
And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right	California sun has sunk
Will every crimmin' hood make a bargain with the world	Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight
Seats are successive when you're shot to the curb	I was high on junk
I spend my day in blindness, at night I get my vision	And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right
Dodgy, cause there are no one indecision	Cause it's wild	When
Cause it's wild When it's	it's Wild wild wild
Wild wild wild	California sun has sunk
California sun has sunk	Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight
Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight	I was high on junk
I was high on junk	And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right
And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right	California sun has sunk
I get destructive outside obedience	Behind Anaheim hills here comes tonight
I am no longer respected in this new transition	I was high on junk
I put into effect, my long time standard	And the warm winds of Santa Anna feel all right FEEL ALL RIGHT!!!
