

Razor Red Noise - Even As The Sun

Tom: Eb

I see the problems sticking around
 And nothing to be said
 I feel the fear that you struck in me
 Going to my head
 I was never good at saying goodbye
 But I knew I had to try
 Soon I'll wish that I had left it all alone
 Even as the sun goes down
 You wait until you know
 Till you know
 Even as the sky turns black
 I'm never coming back
 Tried to pick you, oh apart
 Couldn't even get a grip
 And now I see that it's all for nought
 I'm dying to make it stop
 I was never good at saying goodbye
 But I knew I had to try

Soon I'll wish that I had left it all alone
 Even as the sun goes down
 You wait until you know
 Till you know
 Even as the sky turns black
 I'm never coming back
 I was never good at saying goodbye
 But I knew I had to try
 I was never good at saying goodbye
 But I knew you wouldn't mind
 Now I wish that I had left you all
 Left you all alone
 Left you all alone
 Left you all aloooo oooooo
 Even as the sun goes down
 You wait until you know
 Till you know
 Even as the sky turns black
 I'm never coming back
 I'm never coming back
