

Rebecca Black - Do You?

Tom: E

m

I need some recovery
 Don't wanna make this messy
 Push and pull again
 As you untie the ends
 Baby I need some recovery
 Harder and harder to sleep
 You're weighing heavy on me
 Try and I try
 Can't push it aside
 It's harder and harder to sleep
 Do you?
 Do you know the things you do to me?
 Do you?
 Do you know?
 The way that you sit on my couch
 Staring silently burning a hole in the wall
 Really got me
 Where you want me
 With my head just
 Above the deep
 Hear the sirens
 Silent crying
 Hard to be here

When you don't see me
 Stuck in that weird in between
 Running through old memories
 Felt it for ages
 On different pages
 Stuck in that weird in between
 Do you?
 Do you know the things you do to me?
 Do you?
 Do you know?
 The way that you sit on my couch
 Staring silently burning a hole in the wall
 While I'm trying to fix this, do you even care?
 Really got me
 Where you want me
 With my head just
 Hear the sirens
 Silent crying
 Hard to be here
 When you don't see me
 I need some recovery
 Don't wanna make this messy
 Push and pull again
 As you untie the ends
 Baby I need some recovery
