

Rebecca Parris - A Foggy Day ?In London Town?

```
Tom: C
                                G
 I was a stranger in the city % \frac{1}{2}\left( \frac{1}{2}\right) =\frac{1}{2}\left( \frac{1}{2}\right
                                                                G7
 Out of town were the people I knew
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Gb7
G
I had that feeling of self-pity
Rm Bm E7
 What to do? What to do? What to do
                                                                                                                                                                                      Cdim
                                Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           G
 The outlook was decidedly blue
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Am Am
                                                                    Bm
 But as I walked through the foggy streets alone
Fdim Bm Fdim Am D7 G Am G
 It turned out to be the luckiest day I've known Melody:
D7 G Fm Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     D Cdim
```

```
A foggy day
               in London town
  G Gm Gm A7 A7 D
Had me low had me down G Em G C Cm
 I viewed the morning with alarm
  G E A D
The British museum had lost its charm.
D7 G Fm Am
How long, I wondered, could this thing last Cdim G Gm Gm A7 D
But the age of miracles hadn't passed
   Dm G7 C
                      A7 -
For suddenly I saw you there
Em Am G C G
And through foggy London town
                 A Am D7 G G D7 G7 C7 D7
  C Em
The sun was shining ev'rywhere
```

Acordes

