

Rebecca Parris - Lush Life

Tom: Gb

I used to visit all the very gay places
 Those come what may places Where one relaxes on the axis of the wheel of life
 To get the feel of life from jazz and cocktails
 The girls I knew had sad and sullen gray faces With distant gay traces That used to be there you could see where they'd been washed away
 By too many through the day twelve o'clock tales Then you came along with your siren of song to tempt me to madness
 I thought for a while that your poignant smile was tinged with the sadness
 Of a great love for me

Ah yes! I was wrong again, I was wrong
 Melody
 Life is lonely again, and only last year everything seemed so sure Now life is awful again, a trough full of hearts could only be a bore
 A week in Paris could ease the bite of it, all I care is to smile in spite of it I'll forget you, I will, while yet you are still burning inside my brain Romance is mush, stifling those who strive So I'll live a lush life in some small dive
 And there I'll be, while I rot with the rest Of those whose lives are lonely, too
