

Rebecca Parris - Yesterday I Heard the Rain

Tom: D

A7 G D A7 D G D A7 D          Yesterday I heard the rain, whispering your name          Em Em G A7 Em A7          Asking where you'd gone          G Cdim Em G B7 A7          It fell softly from the clouds on the silent crowds          G D A7 D D D7          As I wandered on          Cdim G G B7 Cdim Em B Em Em          Out of doorways, black umbrellas came to pursue me          Db7 Cdim Db7          Faceless people as they passed          Cdim Gbm Gbm Edim Em A7          Were looking through me no one knew me	A7 G D A7 D G D A7 D          Yesterday I shut my eyes, face-up to the skies          Em Em G A7 Em A7          Drinkin' in the rain          G Cdim Em G B7 A7          But your image still was there, floating in the air          Gdim G A7/13- D          Brighter than a flame.          D7 G G Dbm Gb Gb7          Yesterday I saw a city,          Edim Bm Bm E7 E7          Full of shadows, without pity          Edim D D D D G G G A7 A7/13-          And I heard the steady rain whispering your name          D D D D          Whispering your name
---	--

Acordes
