A man don't know if a man don't show,
Eb Dm
It takes more than some bravery for the situation grows,
Gm Cm
Communicate so vital, the whole world at an idle,
Eb Dm
Lose all your fronts and put down every rifle,

It's time for us to see,
Time for you and me,
Too much greed, while so many bleed,
Now that it's been said, put that shit to bed,
Break it off, shake it off, take a hit, light it up and cut it

Gm Cm Eb Dm
You say you got a feeling to change up the system,
Gm Cm Eb Dm
Oh we can light the scene, be justice of the peace, create an unseen,
Gm Cm Eb Dm
Come use your head, we got ten times the power than some gunshots leaving
some dead,

Gm Cm
Listen up, ready gotta make some shit right,
Eb Dm
We're standing up against the ones who take away lives,

Dm
I mean it like, who wants to live a life, hiding from a war between some 45's
tryin to survive,

Common now,
Gm Cm
How many times you seen a glock used in self-defense?
Eb Dm
How 'bout less than 15 percent, so represent, stand up
Gm Cm
Do you really wanna own one for the sake of it?
Eb Dm
Think about black on black crime, what you think of that?

Poor people struggle everyday, and the rich get richer, what a fucked up

state,

So no more hate,

Gm Cm

Now let us rise up to the top,
Eb Dm
We'll spread a little love instead of seeing gunshots

Think quick, don't sit, come get, that's it, make it, commit yourself for a little bit, no no no
Oh my, time flies, short life, no cry, one time, kiss the fucking violence
goodbye, whoa oh

Gm Cm
On the side, it's the bullet I despise,
Eb
Forget your fucking clip, stop!
Dm
Shouldn't even be there to buy,
Gm Cm
How many heads have got their morals tied up in a knot?
Eb Dm
They forgot firing shots means a lot, naughty naught, Killin' some is ending plots,

Eb
And the dreams of children growing up are cut short from the ghat, chat

Gm Cm
Do you really wanna own one for the sake of it?

Think about PEACE, don't you know there's a hope for that,

And while we struggle everyday, remember that,

LOVE starts with a passion to pursue fighting hatred,
