

Red Hot Chili Peppers - Coffee Shop

Tom: G

Here is some beginning tab for this GREAT! song :

Theme :

1st guitar :

2nd guitar :

I am just a lousy bum
Searching for the unknow crumb, the crumb, the crumb
Something of someone to come Come along illumate my lust, combust Confucing might have been confused
And buddha might have blown a face, booze the muse

Chorus :

Meet me at the Coffee shop

Where we can dance like Iggy Pop

Another go in the porking lot Frewak the cheek on your hotspo-ot

And then back to theme, chorus again and .... the strange part with the strange bass, and then the BASS SOLO ; too hard for me to transcribe

Note that you can play the theme on one guitar only but the result is better on 2 guitars ...

If someone could continue this tab, it would greatly be appreciated !
Some suggestions or comments are greatly welcomed ...
