

Red Hot Chili Peppers - Usually Just At Shirt

Tom: C

A ^Cdove is a ^{Em}glove
 That I wear on my heart
 And though I like to dress smart
 It doesn't have any part of the world of fashion
 And you're there to put me down and I'm sick of the frowns that follow me around

 I would like the sky but there's no reason why
 She'd say to this world with the nose of a girl
 Turned up so loud that it rings sings the cloud I've never been here and though you're physically near You're pushing me away to decay like the day that I loved
