

Reed Pittman - Ask Your Father

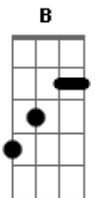

tom:

Intro: E A E A
E Dbm B

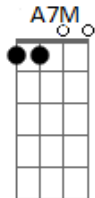

I know you have questions
And you have a lot you need to say
All my imperfections
I hope that they don't get in the way
Cause I've loved you since the day you were born
And nothing's gonna change that, that's for sure

No matter if the day is calm or it gets wild
No matter what you become, you'll be my child
When the world gets darker
I'll be a layer of armor
Stand here in this harbor and get out of the wind
Oh, whatever I can give to you, I offer
Just ask your father
Sneaking in at midnight
Just to see you sleeping peaceful ly
I hope you know it's alright
