

Reinaeiry - It's You, It's Me, It's Us

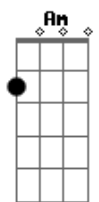

tom:

Am
Between your name and a prayer
Is there a difference? Does it matter?
The stars in the sky can never compare
Because my whole world is the girl over there
You're a lighthouse, calling me home
And I'm sailing the waves that will crash on the stone
"You're getting closer" I hear you say
But the tides pull me away
Oh
And I call out to the weather
Water rushing in my lungs
Send m? a thunderbolt
God's up above
End my own agony
Delivered from love
Hold my head underwater
A final gift to last
It's you, it's me, it's us

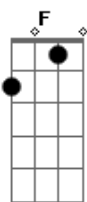

Ohhh oh oh hmm hmm hmm

F G
I've been feeling pieces of myself
Em Am
Slowly drift away
F G
Reflections caught in mirrors
E Am
Remind me everyday
F G
I shatter in your embrace
Em Am
Cause I feel her hold and her voice and her face
F G
"I'll wait forever" I hear you say
Em Am
As the tides drag me away
(Away, away, away, away)
[Chorus]
F G
And I call out to the weather
Em Am
Water rushing in my lungs
F
Send m? a lullaby
G
E
End my own agony

Delivered from love
F G
Hold my head underwater
E Am
A final gift to last
F G F
It's you, it's me, it's us
G C Am F G F

It's you, it's Me, It's Us
