

Renato Russo - Clothes Of Sand

Tom: Db

(intro 2x) Bbm Ab

Bbm Ab Bbm
Who has dressed you in strange clothes of sand?

Gb F
Who has taken you, far from my land?

Bbm Ab Bbm

Who has said that my sayings were wrong?

Gb F Bbm
And who will say that I stayed much too long?

(refrão)

Gb Ab Bbm
Clothes of sand have covered your face

Gb Db F
Given you meaning, taken my place

Gb Ab Bbm Eb
So make your way on, down to the sea

Gb F Bbm Ab Bbm
Something has taken you, so far from me.

Bbm Ab Bbm
Does it now seem worth all the colour of skies?

Gb F
To see the earth, through painted eyes?

Bbm Ab Bbm
To look through panes of shaded glass?

Gb F Bbm
See the stains of winter's grass.

Bbm Ab Bbm
Can you now return to from where you came?

Gb F
Try to burn, your changing name?

Bbm Ab
Or with silver spoons and coloured light

Gb F Bbm
Will you worship moons, in winter's night.

(refrão)

Gb Ab Bbm
Clothes of sand have covered your face

Gb Db F
Given you meaning, taken my place

Gb Ab Bbm Eb
So make your way on, down to the sea

Gb F Bbm Ab Bbm
Something has taken you, so far from me.
