

Renato Russo - The Last Time I Saw Richard

Tom: G
Intro: G C

G
Last time I saw Richard

Was Detroit in 68 and he told me
"All romantics meet the same fate someday:
Cynical and bitter and boring someone

G
In some dark cafe"

You laughed, he said: "You think you're immune?"

Am
Go look at your eyes, they're full of moon!
You like roses and kisses

And pretty men to tell you all those pretty lies"

Pretty lies

F
"When are you gonna realize they're only pretty lies?"

G Am (D A B C B A G)
Only pretty lies, pretty lies

G
He put a quarter in the Wurlitzer

Am
And then he pushed three buttons and the thing began to whirl
And a waitress came by a fishnet stockings and a bow tie

G
And she said: "drink up now, it's getting on time to close"

"Richard, you haven't really changed", I said

Am
"It's just that now you're romanticizing some pain that's in your head

You've got tobs in your in your eyes

G
But the songs you punched are dreaming"

C
Listen, they talk of love so sweet

F
When you gonna get yourself back on your feet?

G
Oh and love can be so sweet

Am (D A B C B A G)
Love's so sweet

Richard got married to a figure skater

Am
And he bought her a dish washer and a coffe percolator
And he drinks at home now, most nights with the TV on

And all the house lights left up bright

I'm gonna blow this damn candle out

Am
I don't want nobody comin' over to my table,
I've got nothing to talk to anybody about
All good dreamer pass this away someday

G
Hidin' behind bottles in dark cafes

C
Dark cafes

Only this darkness

F
Before I get my gorgeous wings

G
And fly away

Am (D A B C B A G)
Only a phase, these dark cafe days
