

Renato Russo - Thunder Road

Tom: G

Screen door slams, Mary's dress waves
 Like a vision dancing across the porch as the radio plays
 Roy Orbison singing for the lonely, hey that's me and I want you only
 Don't turn me home again, I just can't face myself alone again
 Don't run back inside, honey, you know just what I'm here for
 And you're scared and you're thinking that maybe we ain't that young any more show a little faith, there's magic in the night
 You ain't a beauty but eh, you're alright
 Oh and that's alright with me
 Ohh come take my hand We're ridin out tonight to case the Promised Land
 Oh Thunder Road, Oh Thunder road, Oh Thunder Road
 Lyin' out there like a killer in the dark
 Hey I know it's late, we can make it if we run

Oh Thunder Road, sit tight, take hold, Thunder Road
 So I got this guitar and I learned how to make it talk
 And my car's out back if you're ready to take that long walk
 From your front porch to my front seat
 Door's open but the ride ain't free
 Well I know you've been waiting for words that I ain't spoken
 Well tonight we'll be free--all the promises will be broken (e a musica continua com os mesmo acordes nas estrofes abaixo)
 There were ghosts in the eyes of all the boys you sent away
 They drive this dusty beach road in the skeleton frames of burned-out Chevrolets
 They scream your name at night in the street
 Your graduation gown lies in rags at their feet
 And in the lonely cool before dawn you hear their engines roaring on Until you get to the porch, they're gone on the wind so Mary climb in It's a town full of losers and we're pulling out of here to win
