

Renato Russo - Thunder Road

Tom: G

Screen door slams, Mary's dress waves
Like a vision dancing across the porch as the radio plays
Roy Orbison singing for the lonely, hey that's me and I want you only
Don't turn me home again, I just can't face myself alone again
Don't run back inside, honey, you know just what I'm here for
And you're scared and you're thinking that maybe we ain't that young any more show a little faith, there's magic in the night
You ain't a beauty but eh, you're alright
Oh and that's alright with me
Ohh come take my hand We're ridin out tonight to case the Promised Land
Oh Thunder Road, Oh Thunder road, Oh Thunder Road
Lyn' out there like a killer in the dark
Hey I know it's late, we can make it if we run

Oh Thunder Road, sit tight, take hold, Thunder Road
So I got this guitar and I learned how to make it talk
And my car's out back if you're ready to take that long walk
From your front porch to my front seat
Door's open but the ride ain't free
Well I know you've been waiting for words that I ain't spoken
Well tonight we'll be free--all the promises will be broken (e a musica continua com os mesmo acordes nas estrofes abaixo)
There were ghosts in the eyes of all the boys you sent away
They drive this dusty beach road in the skeleton frames of burned-out Chevrolets
They scream your name at night in the street
Your graduation gown lies in rags at their feet
And in the lonely cool before dawn you hear their engines roaring on Until you get to the porch, they're gone on the wind so Mary climb in It's a town full of losers and we're pulling out of here to win
