[Primeira Parte]

Every cell, every part of me
Feels the upward call of Your Glory
I can feel You in everything
Every atom cries out ?You are holy?

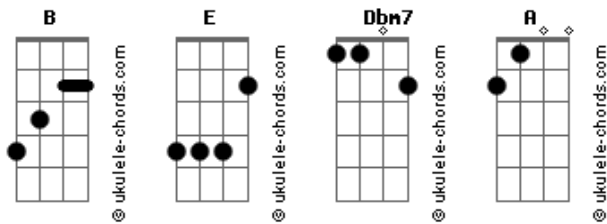

[Pré-Refrão]

As the moon draws a wave into the shore
You are like a magnet to me, Lord
I can?t resist Your gravity
And nor, would I ever want to

[Refrão]

This is what I was made for
To turn each breath into gratefulness
You designed my heart
For loving You
As the deer pants for water
My soul aches for authentic praise

Acordes

You designed my heart
For loving You

Vamp

For loving You
For loving You

[Segunda Parte]

I believe in the mystery
That You are as close as my heartbeat
Though You are an infinity
And galaxies bow down at Your feet

[Ponte]

Worship is my purpose
And the joy within my heart
My natural response to who You are
I join with creation
And the chorus of the stars
The universe responds to who You are [Final]

For loving You
For loving You
For loving You
