

Reneé Rapp - Don't Tell My Mom

tom:

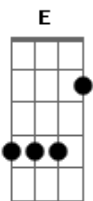

Intro: A E D A

Sweetie will you come home A
 We're tracking your car A
 Who are you with? What are you on? D
 Pick up the phone D
 When I was young A
 My problems were her problems E
 Now, I don't wanna 'cause trouble at all D
 I don't want the call D
 Saying, "We're worried about you, we're worried about you" A E D
 Don't worry about me, just worry about you D
 So don't tell my mom, I'm fallin' apart A E
 She hurts when I hurt, my scars are her scars D
 She'll talk to her friends, impress all of them A E
 At least in her mind, her daughter is fine D
 Oh, please don't let her hear, I'm dyin' inside A E D
 'Cause she's dealt with this for years A E D
 I got it this time
 I'll wait 'til I'm home A
 Cry in the shower, for two to three hours E D

'Til the tears are gone D
 Then pick up the phone D
 Now when we speak A
 I lie and said I slept for 8 hours all 7 nights of the week E D
 She'll get to sleep D
 'Cause, I worry about you, I worry about you, hmm-mmm A E D
 Don't worry about me, just worry about you
 So don't tell my mom, I'm fallin' apart A E
 She hurts when I hurt, my scars are her scars D
 She'll talk to her friends, impress all of them A E
 At least in her mind, her daughter is fine, oh D
 Please don't let her hear, I'm dyin' inside A E D
 'Cause she's dealt with this for years D
 I got it this time
 What you don't know, won't hurt you (Ohh-oooh-ohh) A E
 Momma, I'll lie just for you, no D
 What you don't know, won't hurt you (Ohh-oooh-ohh) A E
 Momma, I'll lie just for you D
 So don't tell my mom, she's wearin' my heart A E
 Her daughter might cry, but she'll be alright D
