

Reneé Rapp - Too Well

tom:
 Capotraste na 3ª casa

Today I woke up in a good mood, for once
 First time in six months, I don't hate you as much
 You weren't there in my dreams, I could finally sleep
 I felt good, but it sucks, I don't hate you as much

It's easier holdin' a grudge, I'd rather be angry than crushed
 I'm doin' too much (I do too much)
 I'm back where I started again, cryin' and callin' my friends
 This shit never ends, uh

I get so sick of myself, can't stop overthinkin'
 I heard you're happy somewhere else
 But I don't forget too well
 I get so sick of myself, can't stop reminiscin'
 I heard you're happy somewhere else
 But I don't forget too well

I still see your face, I hate hearin' your name
 What a wreck, what a shame, I'm replayin' that day
 But you called me at 8, two weeks on a break
 Just to ask for more space, you're my biggest mistake
 It's easier holdin' a grudge, I'd rather be angry than crushed
 I'm doin' too much (I do too much)
 I'm back where I started again, cryin' and callin' my friends
 This shit never ends, uh
 I get so sick of myself, can't stop overthinkin'
 I heard you're happy somewhere else
 But I don't forget too well
 I get so sick of myself, can't stop reminiscin'
 I heard you're happy somewhere else
 But I don't forget too well
 I get so sick of myself, can't stop overthinkin'
 I heard you're happy somewhere else
 But I don't forget too well
