

Reuben And The Dark - Standing Still

Intro: G

Tom:

Well away from the city they carried my life
 I'd grown tired of the way that the day treats the night
 And no matter how far I ran
 No matter how far I ran
 Follow the railroad the only thing dry
 The path does narrow as angela's eyes
 No matter how far I ran
 No matter how far I ran
 Oh may my soul be found
 Brother
 Brother
 Brother

Here's where I belong
 I was born by the water the wealth of the sea
 And infants awaken with ominous dreams
 And I traveled the world till the waltzin the streets

No matter how far I ran
 Oh may my soul be found
 On the tail of a hurricane, the trick of the trade
 I stay angry at angels that stand in the way
 Who wore a halo of smoke from a passing train
 Now the seat at my table's been taken away
 I'm the same man now that I was when I changed
 See, the birth of a star is a death of it's fate
 Rise up like the water and fall like the rain a lung
 Full of air from an oxygen tank
 Brother
 Brother
 Make my soul be found
 Now mother
 Father
 Oh here's where I belong
 Lay me down, and let my love live forever in this ground
