

Rex Orange County - Best Friend

That makes your heart melt tom:
                                                                Who knows what you truly felt
I should've stayed at home
                                                                You're still my favourite girl
'Cause right now I see
                                                                You better trust me when I tell you all these people that love me
                                                                 There ain't no one else more beautiful
But I still feel alone
                                                                 In this damn world
Can't help but check my phone
                                                                 In this damn world
I could've made you mine
                                                                You're gonna wanna be my best friend, baby

                                                                 You're gonna wanna be my best friend
But no, it wasn't meant to be
And see I wasn't made for you
                                                                 (I said that)
                                                                You're gonna wanna be my best friend, baby
And you weren't made for me
Though it seemed so easy
                                                                 You're gonna wanna be my best friend (best friend)
And that's because
                                                                You're gonna wanna be my best friend, baby
                                                                You're gonna wanna be my best friend (best friend)
I wanna be your favorite boy
                                                                You're gonna wanna be my best friend, baby
I wanna be the one that makes your day
                                                                You're gonna wanna be my best friend
The one you think about as you lie awake
I can't wait to be your number one
                                                                I say that I'm happy
I'll be your biggest fan and you'll be mine
                                                                I say that I'm happy
But I still wanna break your heart and make you cry
                                                                But no, no, no, no
                                                                No, no, no, oh
But won't you wait?
                                                                I still wanna be your favorite boy
You know it's too late
I'm on my own shit now
                                                                 I wanna be the one that makes your day
Let me tell you how it feels
                                                                The one you think about as you lie awake
                                                                And I can't wait to be your number, your number one
To be fucking great
  C7
I feel great
                                                                 I'll be your biggest fan and you'll be mine
Woah ohh
                                                                 But I still wanna break your heart and make you cry
                                                                I still wanna be your favorite boy {\sf F}
You need to be yourself
Love someone for loving you
                                                                 I wanna be the one
                                                                 I might just be the one
Instead of someone really cool
