

Rhodes - Run

Tom: G

Do you remember when we used to run?
 Sometimes I think alone
 I dream under the sun
 And I know
 It's a long long time ago now
 But I miss it, I miss it so

Hold, hold down the world
 Hold, hold ooon to your sun

Oh why do we run, run, run
 so far from each other?
 Oh is it love, love, love?
 So hard to remember

Well I'm tired now
 Tired now I've grown
 We never did
 We never did walk alone, did we?

So hold, hold down the world
 Hold, hold ooon to your sun.

Oh why do we run, run, run
 so far from each other?
 Oh is it love, love, love?
 So hard to remember

And the silence of your heart, it beats in miine.

And you thought it might disguise the parting liine

Oh why do we run, run, run
 so far from each other?
 Oh is it love, love, love?
 So hard to remember

Oh why do we run, run, run
 so far from each other?
 Oh is it love, love, love?
 So hard to remember
