

Ricardo de Paulla - The Raven In The Light

tom:

[Verse 1]

Erase my fear, ignite my peace
 Your love is the remedy that brings me the light
 When the world spins, and the pain makes no sense
 Only you heal me, make me feel alive

[Verse 2]

I lose myself in the void, in the shadow of pain
 But your eyes are lighthouses, illuminating my soul
 The words fell silent, the stillness torments me
 But your touch wakes me, and the sadness fades away

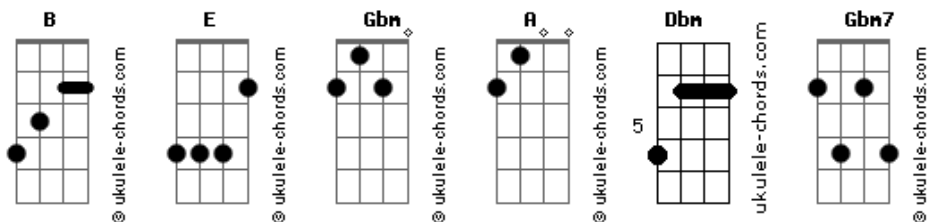

[Chorus]

The raven flies high, bringing the light
 In the darkness, it's the path that guides me
 When fear controls me and pain imprisons me
 It brings hope, the cure that renews me eeeeeeee ooooh ooh

[Verse 3]

I look back and see what I've overcome
 Every tear, every battle, where love led me
 Now I am strong, for in your embrace I found
 The strength that was missing, the reason for who I am, and never let go. Ooooh
