

Richie Kotzen - Devil's Hand

tom: G

It was all a dream I was strong and lean
 I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand

I should have listened to my mother
 She told me kid dont push your luck
 Your woman's gonna leave you
 I threw everything away
 Tell me who I am oh open up my eyes

It was all a dream I was strong and lean
 I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand
 I was all for her she was all for me
 I lost all her adoration to another man
 That she don?t know
 She don?t know him
 She'll never love him
 The way she loved me

I've been slipping into bad things
 So I can put my mind to waste
 No I don?t wanna feel you

It's a lesson I've been served
 If only I could go back and relive those years

But it was all a dream I was strong and lean
 I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand
 I was all for her she was all for me
 I lost all her adoration to another man
 That she don?t know
 She don?t know him
 She'll never love him
 The way she loved me

It was all a dream I was strong and lean
 I lost all my inspiration to the Devil's Hand
 I was all for her she was all for me
 I lost all her adoration to another man
 That she don?t know
 She don?t know him
 She'll never love him
 The way she loved me
