

Richie Kotzen - Remember

Tom: D

I can read your mind
 Don't you know its easy for me after all This time
 And I know when you lie
 If were talking on the phone or one on one
 The truth you never hide
 I don't need you to teel me theres Something wrong
 Because your eyes are unmistakable
 I cant seem to get my head around you being gone
 so before you goal so before you leave
 Remember remember remember that yourhearts not unbreakable

 Remember remember remember
 That I still love you
 All the things I thought in never see Have now come to be
 You said our love was strong I said that we belong
 But somehow I lost you suttenly
 I don't need you to tell me that theres something wrong
 Because your give you away
 I cant seem to get my head around you being gone
 so before you goal so before you leave
