Take my days, been building me

A man struggle lifting his feet

I'm not tied to you, I'm not tied

Wrapped up tight and won't let me go

Tell myself I'm cutting the rope

I'm not tied to you, cut me open

I wanna bury my feelings until my mind escapes me

I'll wear the war paint just fight off my demons until them all

Defy me

Honey, oh honey, you'll never find me

Could be freed, maybe it's greed

All them vultures want you to bleed

You're not tied to what they see

There's still time if you believe

Take a second maybe suddenly you see you're not tied

Take it, take it from me

I wanna bury my feelings until my mind escapes me

I'll wear the war paint just fight off my demons until them all

Defy me

Don't you say go until it's over

I'll wear the war paint just fight off my demons until you all

Defy me
Honey, oh honey you'll never find me

I'm gonna bury my feelings until my mind escapes me

I'll wear the war paint just fight off my demons until they all

Defy me

Saved from convent Jesus, I got it all behind me now
